

Emerald Innovations App Privacy Policy

Thank you for choosing to use the “Emerald Setup” app from Emerald Innovations, Inc (“Emerald”). We are committed to protecting your right to privacy. If you have any questions or concerns about our notice, or our practices with regards to your privacy, please contact us at info@emeraldinno.com.

This privacy notice applies to all information collected through our mobile application, ("Apps"), and/or any related services (we refer to them collectively in this privacy notice as the "Services"). In this privacy notice, we seek to explain to you in the clearest way possible what information we collect, how we use it and what rights you have in relation to it. We hope you take some time to read through it carefully, as it is important. If you choose to use the Services, then you agree to the collection and use of information in relation to this Policy.

Information Collection and Use

We do not collect any Personally Identifiable Information or Personal Health Information through our Apps, that is, we do not collect any information that can be associated with you as an individual (such as name, address, e-mail addresses, financial information, medical information, etc.). We request some information when using our Apps in order to provide the Services. This information is obtained pursuant to informed consent of participants.

We may request access or permission to certain features from your mobile device, including your mobile device's camera and Wi-Fi. These permissions are only required to enable the Apps to configure our Services and do not store any Personally Identifiable Information. Further, the Apps notify users prior to all accesses of the mobile device's camera and Wi-Fi. If you wish to change our access or permissions, you may do so in your device's settings.

We will only process information for purposes based on the informed consent of the participants to comply with our business obligations, and/or to fulfil our legal obligations.

We will only keep participants' information for as long as it is necessary for the purposes set out in this privacy notice, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law.

Log Data

In case of an error in the Apps, Emerald may collect data and information on your phone called Log Data. Such data never contains any Personally Identifiable Information or Personal Health Information. This Log Data may include information such as your device operating system version, the configuration of the Apps when utilizing the Services, the time and date of use of the Services, and other statistics.

Cookies

The App does not use cookies or tracking technologies.

Security

We also protect your information through a system of organizational and technical security measures. All information provided through the Apps is encrypted both during storage and transmission.

Links to Other Sites

This App does not contain links to other Sites.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

Emerald may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. However, under no circumstances will Emerald share or use any information provided through the App except as authorized by participants' explicit and informed consent. You are advised to review this page periodically for any changes. Emerald may notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. These changes are effective immediately after they are posted on this page.
